

Graduates

Rutendo and Verna Jokomo are from Harare, Zimbabwe. Rutendo is currently pursuing a Master of Health Science degree with an emphasis in Population Environmental Health, and Risk Sciences & Public Policy at the Johns Hopkins School of Public Health. Verna completed her undergraduate degree and MBA at Southwestern and is working towards certifying as a Public Accountant. She is working with the Gashirai Nyasha Project, a nonprofit she co-founded with her family that is aimed at providing sustainable growth and development in Zimbabwe.

Hilary Mawia graduated from Southwestern in 2008 and is originally from Yangon, Burma. She recently graduated from Ben-Hurion University of the Negev with her medical degree. She is doing her pediatric residency in New York City.

Carlos Nogami is from Juarez, Mexico and graduated from the Lydia Patterson Institute. A 2005 graduate, Carlos is now the Senior Risk Analyst at INVISTA, a wholly owned subsidiary of Koch Industries in Wichita, KS.

Andrew Singh grew up in New Delhi, India and graduated in 2004. He is currently serving as an Associate Pastor of First UMC in Georgetown, Kentucky.

Jonathan Woon is from Teluk Intan, Malaysia and graduated in 2013. Jonathan is the Digital Media Specialist at the Upper Room in Nashville, Tennessee.

Institute for Discipleship

Chartered by Southwestern College on April 20, 2001, the Institute for Discipleship is dedicated to providing educational opportunities that nurture and enrich Christian leaders, lay and clergy, for effective living and ministry.

Other Institute Programs:

- BeADisciple.com - Provides an online location for workshops, trainings, bible studies, and other educational opportunities for Christian leaders, lay and clergy.
- BeADisciple Academy - Designed to be a global online faith-building fellowship for students who want to go deeper in their faith lives and leadership skills.
- Visiting Scholar - Provides a campus context for a new PhD in Religion to continue their research and experience a college community which actively nurtures the call of its students exploring church vocation.
- Campus Ministry Support - a wide range of activities which enhance campus ministries at the college

Institute for Discipleship
— Bishop Scholarships —

A four year scholarship for undergraduates exploring church vocations and global church engagement.

The Richard and Julia Wilke
Institute for Discipleship
At Southwestern College

Andrew Singh

Over the years, more than 50 students with a Bishop Scholarship have graduated from Southwestern College.

Hilary Mawia

They have come from all parts of the globe and are making a positive difference throughout the world today.

Students interested in attending Southwestern who have ties to the Methodist Church, are from outside the United States, or bring a global perspective to our campus, are involved in their local ministry, and wish to participate in a service learning or worship outreach program are encouraged to apply.

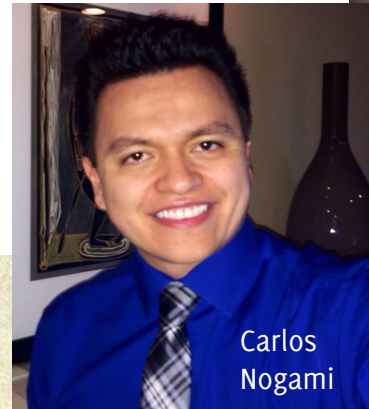

Rutendo and Verna Jokomo

The Bishop Scholarship is applied in addition to all other financial aid. Scholarship amounts range in relationship to need.

Scholarships will be awarded based on the following criteria:

- Methodist Affiliation
- Financial Need
- Interest in ministry
- Leadership potential
- Global Perspective
- Potential Impact
- Referral

Carlos Nogami

Jonathan Woon

Application Process

To start your application, go online and visit www.sckans.edu/bishopolars.

You will also need a letter of reference from your church pastor or a church official.

Letters should be submitted to Dr. Steve Wilke at steve.wilke@sckans.edu.