Reared against the arch of heaven,
Looks she calmly down.

Chorus

Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
Over hill and dale,
Hail to thee, beloved Southwestern,

Academic Regalia

On formal academic occasions the faculty appears in academic dress that originated in the Middle Ages. This dress includes the gown, the hood, and the mortarboard (cap). The gown distinguishes holders of the three degrees—doctorate, master's, and bachelor's. The doctoral gown is faced with velvet and has bell-shaped sleeves, on each of which are three velvet chevrons. The master's gown has sleeves which reach nearly to the knees and are slit above the elbow. The bachelor's gown has pointed sleeves and lacks the velvet trimming of the doctoral gown.

The hood indicates by the color of its velvet edging the area of study in which the wearer's degree was taken, and its silk lining displays the color or colors of the institution which conferred the degree. (For instance, Southwestern College's colors are purple and white.) On most campuses the most common degrees are in arts, letters, or humanities (white); business administration or accounting (drab); economics (copper); education (light blue); fine arts (brown); journalism (crimson); library science (lemon); music (pink); nursing (apricot); philosophy (dark blue); physical education (sage green); science (golden yellow); social science (citron); speech (silver gray); and theology (scarlet).

The mortarboard tassel of faculty holding bachelor's or master's degrees is usually black. Gold tassels are worn only by holders of doctoral degrees and by heads of institutions.

Academic dress that differs from this description usually indicates a degree from a university abroad or at home which does not follow the typical pattern.

An effort has been made in this program to recognize the diverse ways in which the students of Southwestern College model the mission of the college as a learning community. We recognize there undoubtedly are students whose names should have been included. We apologize for any omissions or inaccuracies.

Devices to assist those with hearing problems are available in the box office, and an area is reserved for handicapped patrons and their companions in the rear of the hall.

A LEARNING COMMUNITY DEDICATED TO:

- Intellectual growth and career preparation;
- Individual development and Christian values;
- Lifetime learning and responsible citizenship; and
- Leadership through service in a world without boundaries.
