United Methodist Ministry Scholarship

The SC United Methodist Ministry Scholarship Program offers students who are members of the United Methodist Church and are pursing ministry as a career to receive a $1000/year scholarship in addition to participating in the United Methodist Ministry Scholars Program.

Requirements:

- Membership in a United Methodist Church
- 3.0 GPA
- Intention to enter some form of vocational ministry (local church, missions, youth ministry, music ministry, etc.)
- Taking either the Discipleship Southwestern or Worship Outreach activity grant

In addition to the scholarship, members of the SC United Methodist Ministry Scholarship Program will participate in the following opportunities:

- Attendance at the SC United Methodist Ministry Scholarship dinner.
- Meet with a "Ministry Coach" 6 times a year in person or via Skype for ministry discernment purposes.
- Interaction with Philosophy and Religion department lecturers during the three annual lectures.
- A scholarship to attend Church of the Resurrection Leadership Institute (or comparable event) one year.
- Guidance in selection of a summer or school ministry internship.
- Paying the application fee for 1 seminary of your choice.

This scholarship is renewable for up to 3 years (for a total of 4 years) contingent upon maintaining a GPA of 3.0, retaining membership in a United Methodist Church, affiliation with a local UMC, and maintaining a major or minor in a ministry-related discipline.

The application is due on February 1, 2012 and should be sent to:

Rev. Ashlee Alley
100 College St
Winfield, KS 67156

Any questions should be submitted to Rev. Alley, Ashlee.Alley@sckans.edu, or 620-229-6362.
