

June 8 - Last day of the Festival! Getting ready for the Banquet, Concert, and seeing family.

Last Rehearsal before the concert.

Practicing scales for the concert! It takes courage to improvise in front of an audience.

Reunion!! "I missed you Mom and Dad, and can I come back next year?!"

All packed, but don't want to leave my festival friends.

Banquet before the concert. We saw a montage of pictures of festival activities.

Dress rehearsal. Wearing our Festival T-Shirts.

FAITH, HOPE, COURAGE and FREEDOM! Explaining the 4 pillars in front of Christy Hall. While participants were in dress rehearsal, Tim Shook conducted a campus walking tour for parents and family members.

Walk down the historic "77 steps" and turn around. Always and impressive sight.

Moving percussion for the Festival Concert.

All rehearsed, time for performance.

SHOWTIME!

The buzz of anticipation begins. The house opens for the audience. Choose your seats fast, the hall will be full.

The orchestra prepared and ready to perform.

Orchestra and Choir join to perform Ave Verum Corpus by W. A. Mozart. Beautiful!

Jazz Band in concert. Every note worth listening to. They all improvised in solo. Amazing.

Jeremiah sings, "A City Called Heaven."

Roberts Brothers Gospel Quartet close the concert and bring down the house.

Counselors Crash!

Key returned? Check. Trash out? Check. Room Clean? Check. Whew!! It's Over!
Ready to do it again next year.

A SUCCESS!! SUMMER MUSIC FESTIVAL 2008!!!