

Friday, June 6 - The weather was calmer. Everyone is settled into a routine. Tonight we have our pictures taken and it is Movie Night.

Elective - Conducting - We are learning the basics of music expression through the hands and batons.

Elective - Conducting - We have a live choir on whom we can practice our conducting!

Elective - Improvisation - Writing scales. We have to know our scales in order to improvise.

Flute Masterclass - Breath Control, Flautists have to have it!! No better way to understand and develop it than through an itty bitty straw.

Break from rehearsal - Ultimate Frisbee

Got It! Yes Mom, we have laundry to do when we get home.

Some chose to go swimming.

A great way to spend time with your festival friends.

Singing in a circle to hear one another.

A City Called Heaven! Sing It! Jeremiah!!

IPA symbols to guide toward correct pronunciation.

Professor Daniel Stevens leading the orchestra.

Ultimate Frisbee, shower and change - now back to making music.

What can beat playing Mozart with festival friends on a warm summer day?

Counselors become colleagues in the rehearsal.

Drum Circle - We know our back is to you, but look at the Official 2008 Summer Music Festival shirt. Fantabulous! We took group and individual pictures after Drum Circle.

Happy Birthday! Katie!!

We all settled down to some snacks and a great movie, "August Rush."
