

Thursday, June 5 - A full day of dedicated rehearsal, individual practice, learning new skills, all with a summer storm brewing as we worked. Martin Rude and Joel Alejandro introduced the Drum Circle and we had a BLAST! with 9-Lives Comedy Improv Troup.

Theory IS Fun! Improving our rhythm skills.

After a hard morning of rehearsal and afternoon activities, it's time to rejuvenate.

Dedication in the afternoon rehearsal.

Violin II section - Focused practice led by Joseph.

Violin I section engaged as they prepare for Prof. Stevens.

Jazz Flute! Cool!

Working together for that perfect jazz sound.

Prof. Schmitz conducts with flair.

Who knew a storm was brewing? We know right where to go for safety!

Singing with INTENT!

Dr. Gardner demonstrating vocal technique. Raise those eyebrows!

DRUM CIRCLE! Martin Rude leading us and taking us back to the basics of rhythm, beat and life. Listen to your heart beat!

9-Lives Comedy Improv Troup! What a BLAST!

"Here's the plan."

Hitchhiker. One of the Improv Games.

3-Headed Dr. Know-it-All. Another fun game.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! SOPHIE!
