SGA Mission:

Voice of the students; leadership development for student organizations.

SGA Goals:

- Senate Involvement
- Become a known organization
- Enforcing structure

Small Group Concerns:

- What does SGA mean to you?
- What has been your favorite part of SGA this year?
  - Doing a good job with restructuring
  - Think that the executives were working really hard
  - Professionalism
- What suggestions/improvements/concerns do you have for SGA?
  - Get our name out there more to let other students know why we're here
  - Let other people know how hard we work
  - Have more separation from StuFu and SGA
  - Transparency when it comes to budgets
  - Change the voting process when voting for budget requests
    - Have organizations defend their budget requests when it's over a certain amount of money
  - Do name tags for organizations
  - No penalty for those organizations that do not show up to meetings
    - Have a point system

- Struggle to not represent more than one organization
- What do you find unsatisfactory about SGA?
- For past members – is there anything you miss?
- Other concerns/comments
- How can SGA help your organization specifically?
  - Assign executives to organizations and check on them periodically
  - Have organizations pair up and try to work together
    - “buddy system”
    - Relieves pressure within an individual organization
    - Different organizations with similar goals
    - Academic with academic
  - Have a stronger organization mentor a weaker organization
