

JOB DESCRIPTION: Animal Care - Aquarist

Name of Position: Animal Care - Aquarist

Department: Biology

Campus Location: Beech Science Center

Supervisor: Patrick Ross

Length of Contract: Full Academic Year (2022 - 2023)

Pay Rate: Minimum Wage

Job Purpose: The aquarist helps in the care and feeding of the aquatic life in the Aquaria at the Beech Science Center.

Job Responsibilities:

- Regular feeding of live animals. (aquaria).
- Repair of associated equipment (pumps, lights, filters, etc.)
- Conducting public presentations on animals.
- Other duties or special projects as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge and interest in fish and other aquatic organisms.
- Public speaking skills and stage presence.
- Good organizational and time management skills.
- Strong level of personal responsibility.
- Attention to details.

Skill Development Areas:

- Knowledge of the care and feeding of aquatic animals.
- Aquarium maintenance and construction

Evaluation: Students will be monitored regularly and provided with feedback as needed as will the condition and health of the animals and facilities under their care.